ADVANCE DIRECTIVE/LIVING WILL

I understand that Collier Endoscopy and Surgery Center's policy does not honor advance directives/living wills, but it is my right to have an advance directive/living will present in my medical record at Collier Endoscopy and Surgery Center. I understand that if an emergency medical condition should occur I will be transferred to the closest hospital for further evaluation and treatment. I understand that if I have an advance directive or living will, the surgery center will still transfer me to the closest hospital, and provide that institution with a copy of such document and that at that time, the institution to which I have been transferred will make decisions about following any advance directive or living will.

SUMMARY OF THE FLORIDA PATIENT'S BILL OF RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Florida law requires that your health care provider or health care facility recognize your rights while you are receiving medical care and that you respect the health care provider's or health care facility's right to expect certain behavior on the part of patients. You may request a copy of the full text of this law from your health care provider or health care facility. A summary of your rights and responsibilities follows.

Patient's rights:

- A patient has the right to be treated with courtesy and respect, with appreciation of his or her individual dignity and with protection of his or her need for privacy.
- A patient has the right to a prompt and reasonable response to questions and requests.
- A patient has the right to know who is providing medical services and who is responsible for his/her care.
- A patient has the right to know what patient support services are available, including whether an interpreter is available if he or she does not speak English.
- A patient has the right to know what rules and regulations apply to his or her conduct.
- A patient has the right to be given health care information concerning diagnosis, planned course of treatment, alternatives, risks and prognosis.
- A patient has the right to refuse treatment, except as otherwise provided by law.
- A patient has the right to be given, upon request, full information and necessary counseling on the availability of known financial resources for his or her care.
- A patient who is eligible for Medicare has the right to know, upon request and in advance of treatment; whether the health care provider or health care facility accepts Medicare.
- A patient has the right to receive, upon request, prior to treatment, a reasonable estimate of charges for medical care.
- A patient has the right to receive a copy of reasonable clear and understandable itemized bill and upon request, to have charges explained.
- A patient has the right to impartial access to medical treatment or accommodations, regardless of race, national origin, religion, physical handicap or source of payment.
- A patient has the right to treatment for any emergency medical condition that will deteriorate from failure to provide treatment.
- A patient has the right to know if medical treatment is for experimental research purposes and to give his or her consent or refusal to participate in such experimental research.
- A patient has the right to express grievances regarding any violation of his/her rights, as stated in Florida law, through the grievance procedure of the health care provider or health care facility which served him/her and to the appropriate state licensing agency.

Patient's responsibilities:

- A patient is responsible for providing to the health care provider, to the best of his/her knowledge, accurate and complete information about previous complaints, past illnesses, hospitalizations, medications, and other matters relating to his or her health.
- A patient is responsible for reporting unexpected changes in his/her condition to the health care provider.
- A patient is responsible for reporting to the health care provider whether he/she comprehends a contemplated course of action and what is expected of him or her.
- A patient is responsible for keeping appointments and, when he/she is unable to do so for any reason, for notifying the health care provider or health care facility.
- A patient is responsible for following the treatment plan recommended by the health care provider.
- A patient is responsible for his or her actions if he/she refuses treatment or does not follow health care provider's instructions.
- A patient is responsible for assuring that the financial obligations of his or her health care are fulfilled as promptly as possible.
- A patient is responsible for following health care provider and health care facility rules and regulations affecting patient care and conduct.
